

The Mantini Sisters – Biography

*"What's all the fuss about, you ask? It's the Mantinis' charm, charisma, and musical talent."
Simcoe Times Reformer*

Everywhere The Mantini Sisters go, rave reviews and standing ovations follow. Described as “Canada’s contribution to the great female trios”, Sandra, Barbara and Ann have been captivating audiences across North America with their powerful voices, humour, musical versatility and style.

With a career spanning nearly three decades, The Mantini Sisters continue to win the hearts of music lovers of all ages. Their concerts feature popular songs from Swing-Jazz to Broadway and from Folk to Country. Their smooth harmonious sound brings freshness to the popular songbooks and pays tribute to the great artists of our time.

As independent artists, The Mantini Sisters have co-written and produced their critically acclaimed productions of “Moments to Remember”, “The Ladies of Broadway”, “Home For the Holidays”, “The Mantini Sisters - Christmas!” and most recently, “The Mantini Sisters - Pretty World”. And if that weren’t enough, they have co-produced three CD recordings on their own label, Trio Music. “Moments to Remember”, released in 1997, was recorded at the Glen Gould Studio in Toronto; followed by “The Mantini Sisters – Christmas”, released in 2004; and most recently, “Pretty World”, released in 2012.

Recognized for their showmanship, they were recipients of the Niagara Music Awards for Best Theatrical Performance, and have had the opportunity to work and share the stage with some of Canada’s best artists, musicians and symphony orchestras.

This dynamic trio along with their cohort of phenomenal musicians, continue to perform for concert-series, out-door music festivals, private, corporate and special events, including performances at Bryant Park in New York City at the invitation of Ontario Tourism and the City of Niagara Falls. Most recently, they were featured in Drayton Entertainment’s smash-hit, Big Band Legends and in December, have been invited back with their “Mantini Sisters Christmas” and encore performances in Big Band Legends for their 2013 season.
